Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the act of representing as one's own original work the creative works of another, without appropriate acknowledgment of the author or source. Creative works may include published and unpublished written documents, interpretations, designs, music sounds, images, photographs, computer codes and ideas or ideological frameworks gained through working with another person or in a group. These works may be in print and/or electronic media.

Collusion

Collusion is the fraudulent presentation by a student of an assignment as his or her own which is in fact the result in whole or in part of unauthorised collaboration with another person or persons. Collusion involves the cooperation of two or more students in plagiarism or other forms of academic misconduct.

Both collusion and plagiarism can occur in group work. For examples of plagiarism, collusion and academic misconduct in group work please see the University's policy on Academic Honesty and Plagiarism at <http://www.serviced/unimelb.edu.au/plagiarism/index.html>

STUDENT DECLARATION

I declare that this submission is my own original work, except where I have made proper attribution to the original source. This assignment has not previously been submitted for assessment in this or any other subject. I understand that plagiarism and collusion constitute cheating. Disciplinary action will be taken against students who engage in plagiarism and collusion as outlined in the University Policy on Academic Honesty and Plagiarism. Proven involvement in plagiarism or collusion may be recorded on my academic file in accordance with Statute 13.1.18.

For the purposes of assessment, I give the assessor of this assignment the permission to:

- Reproduce this assignment and provide a copy to another member of staff; and
- Take steps to authenticate the assignment, including communicating a copy of this assignment to a plagiarism checking service (which may retain a copy of the assignment on its database for future plagiarism checking.)
